No, I do not want to receive u3a matters magazine.

Please note that, to facilitate your membership, Perth u3a uses and shares your data as follows, under the lawful basis of legitimate interest defined in the UK GDPR and the Data Protection Act 2018:

- for administration, planning and management of Perth u3a
- to allow communication between group leaders and their group members
- to communicate information likely to be of interest to members of Perth u3a, for example:
  - news about Perth u3a
  - notices about meetings and events
  - information from the Third Age Trust and u3a Scotland.
- to share with the suppliers of our external membership management system and with the suppliers of services such as the printing of renewal invitations (if you do not have email).
- to send your name and address to the printers of u3a matters if you have opted to receive it (see selection boxes above) so they can send the magazine directly to you by post.

The minimum data required to enable your membership is your name, postal address and phone number. You can ask for your data to be corrected or ask not to receive u3a matters magazine by contacting a committee member (you can find their contact details in our printed programme.)
